Payments shall be made without deduction of any kind, including Tax. If the applicable law requires any Tax to be deducted before payment the amount shall be increased so that the payment made will equal the amount due to the Airport Operator as if no such Tax had been imposed.

The User shall not, in respect of any claim it may hold against the Airport Operator or otherwise, make any set off against or deduction from the Charges provided for in these Terms and Conditions without the express written consent of the Airport Operator. Unless authorized otherwise by the Airport Operator, the User must pay such Charges in full pending resolution of any such claim.

Without prejudice to the Airport Operator's other payment rights and powers in these Terms and Conditions of Use, the Airport Operator may set off any sums received from the User against any sum due by the User under or in relation to the Contract.

The Airport Operator shall at all times be entitled to withhold any amount(s) due to the User against any amount(s) owed by the User to the Airport Operator.

Acceptable methods of payment are wire transfers, checks, cash and credit cards.

The User shall promptly inform the Airport Operator if one or more of the following events occur:

- Should such User become insolvent,
- should any Affiliate of such User become insolvent, whether it is located in France or abroad,
- should such User commit any act of bankruptcy,
- should a receiving order be made against such User,
- should an order or resolution whether voluntary or compulsory be made or passed for the purposes of an administration of such User,
- should such User enter into liquidation or become otherwise unable to pay its debts,
- should such User make any assignment of its assets for the benefit of or any arrangement or composition with its creditors.

In such circumstances, the Airport Operator may withdraw any term of payment granted to the User as stated in Section 2.2.2 Deferred payment.

2.2 Terms of payment

2.2.1 General Term of payment

The Aeronautical Charges shall become due on the day they were incurred and shall be payable to the Airport Operator on demand as soon as the service has been performed and in any event before the relevant Aircraft departs from the Airport.

The Other Airport Charges shall become due and payable by the User before the date indicated on the relevant invoice and shall in any event be paid within fifteen (15) days of the invoice's date.

2.2.2 Deferred payment

It is agreed between the Parties that the provisions of this Section 0.2 shall only apply to Aeronautical Charges, at the exclusion of any other Charge.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

Users who wish to be afforded a Deferred Payment should make an application in writing to the Airport Operator and make available information that the Airport Operator may require, including but not limited to:

- Latest annual financial statements, including the balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statements, and any notes detailing these documents
- Four latest quarterly financial statements, also including the aforementioned documents

In the event that the User refuses to provide the information requested in order to obtain a Deferred payment, the Airport Operator will apply the General Term of payment to the User and will not grant any Deferred payment.

The Airport Operator shall analyze such data provided by the User in order to evaluate its financial health, the risk of Payment Default and decide accordingly whether a Deferred payment can be granted to the User. The Airport Operator's methodology of analysis is based on the criteria detailed in Schedule A. Granting a Deferred payment shall be at the discretion of the Airport Operator.

The Airport Operator shall notify its decision in writing to the User one (1) month before applying it. If the User does not receive such notification, the User shall pay its charges according to the General term of payment described in Section 2.2.1.

If the Airport Operator notified that a Deferred payment is offered to the User, it shall mean that any Aeronautical Charge shall be paid within fifteen (15) days of the invoice's date.

The analysis of the User's financial health will be performed regularly by the Airport Operator. As such, the User shall communicate quarterly the above-mentioned documents and any other document requested by the Airport Operator at any time. At any time, the User is entitled to ask the Airport Operator to reexamine its financial situation in order to benefit from a Deferred payment. Nevertheless, the Airport Operator decides if the User is entitled to benefit or not from a Deferred payment.

After reexamination of the financial health of the User at any time, the Airport Operator may withdraw any Deferred payment granted to the User and apply to him the General Terms of payment described in Section 2.2.1.

In such case, the Airport Operator undertakes to notify the User of such change one (1) month before applying the General Terms of payment.

Nevertheless, at any time if the User's financial situation is considered critical¹ by the Airport Operator, who decides if such situation occurred, the Airport Operator may immediately decide to withdraw any Deferred payment and immediately apply to the User the General Term of payment. The Airport Operator will promptly notify such decision to the User.

The User may request a justification of the decision taken by the Airport Operator within one (1) month after notification. If requested by the User within one (1) month after notification of the change in the terms of payment, the Airport Operator and the User shall discuss in good faith potential alternative terms of payment. In particular, the User may provide the Airport Operator such additional guarantees to provide comfort to the Airport Operator with regards to its solvency.

2.3 Payment guarantees

Notwithstanding Section 2.2 above, the Airport Operator may, at any time and from time to time, require the User to provide a Security Deposit.

The amount of the Security Deposit given by the User shall cover the equivalent of three (3) months of Charges owed by the User.

The Airport Operator may from time to time review and revise the amount of the Security Deposit requested to the User when Charges incurred by the User may increase (for example, when the User's level of traffic at the Airport increases).

The additional Security Deposit shall be placed by the User with the Airport Operator within ten (10) Business Days of the demand in writing of the Airport Operator.

The Airport Operator shall at any time apply against the Security Deposit any debts owed by the User to the Airport Operator including but not limited to, any Charge overdue for payment under the Contract.

Once the Airport Operator has used the Security Deposit to obtain payment of any Charge referred to above, the Security Deposit shall be replenished. In such case, the replenishment shall correspond to an estimation of the Charges that will be due by the User within the next three (3) months.

Failure for the User to comply with these requirements may lead to immediate acceleration of the User's debt toward the Airport Operator and as such withdrawal of any Deferred payment granted.

¹ A financial situation can be assessed as critical in the following situations (non-exhaustive list): payment default on airport charges, or any other financial obligation, low level of cash, high leverage, low profitability, bankruptcy/restructuring

Any Security Deposit paid pursuant to this Section may be returned to the User if:

- (i) the User ceases operations at the Airport, provided that all debts owed to the Airport Operator are settled in full; or
- (ii) No Charges remains unpaid and the User's financial health is considered as satisfactory by the Airport Operator.

The User acknowledges and agrees that the Airport Operator may also, at any time and from time to time, request a parent company guarantee by an Affiliate of the User to secure the obligations of the User under the Contract. Among the guarantees that may be requested from the parent company or any Affiliate, the Airport Operator can in particular ask for a first-demand guarantee or a solidarity commitment regarding the User's debt. This term is a substantial condition of the Airport Operator's consent for the use of the Airport Facilities and Services.

2.4 Payment Default

2.4.1 General

If, due to any reason other than the default of the Airport Operator, the User does not pay in full any sum due to the Airport Operator in respect of the use of any Airport Facilities and Services within such period as permitted by the Airport Operator, the User shall be deemed to be in "Payment Default" and shall be liable for the following:

- (i) interest on such sum due at the semi-annual European Centrak Bank key interests rate plus 10% (article 441-10 of the French Code of Commerce), which interests shall accrue on a day to day basis from the date falling immediately after the due date for payment to the date of actual payment in full of such sum; and
- (ii) a lump-sum penalty of 40 (forty) Euros, it being understood that an additional compensation may be requested should the the costs and expenses incurred by the Airport Operator to recover such sum and interests exceed the lump-sum referred to above., as evidenced by documentary proof. (

If a User is in Payment Default then the Airport Operator may decide that:

- the User's debt to the Airport Operator is accelerated and
- any Deferred payment granted under the Contract as per Section 2.2.2 above is withdrawn and
- any incentives scheme is suspended and
- the Security Deposit is applied against the debts owed by the User to the Airport Operator as described in Section 2.3 above is exercised.

Any variation to the payment requirements shall be communicated to the User in writing (by email or by letter) and, where there is a difference, shall supersede and take precedence over any payments terms that may be set out in an invoice or otherwise.

Where payment has not been made for any specific service, the Airport Operator reserves the right to withdraw the access to, or cease providing, the service which has not been paid for, in accordance with article 1219 of the French civil code. Such suspension of the services provided shall continue until full payment of the debts owed by the User.

If, as a result of the performance of such suspension provided for in article 1219 of the French civil code, the User considers to endure damages and / or the Airport Operator were to incur liability, such liability would in any case be limited in amount to the value of the Charge for which the suspension had been invoked.

2.3.2 Protective measures

The User acknowledges and agrees that such enforcement measures may be carried out:

- against any aircraft operated by the User or any Affiliate of the User,
- by the Airport Operator, or any of its Affiliates or by any Other Airport, for any Charge due to the Airport Operator or to any of its Affiliates or any Other Airport.

NOISE LEVEL COEFFICIENTS

Landing fees and charges depend on aircraft noise level and landing time.

The basic airport landing fee is multiplied by a coefficient, specified below, which is calculated according to the acoustic group of the aircraft and landing time. Acoustic groups are defined by the French Decree issued on 26 February 2009.

If an aircraft group is not declared, the fee will be invoiced at the highest coefficient, i.e. Group 1.

CO2 MODULATION

The landing fee for each aircraft is adjusted based on a bonus / penalty coefficient depending on the amount of CO2 emissions produced by the aircraft identified by its registration number, per landing and take-off cycle (« LTO » cycle).

The calculation of the CO2 bonus / penalty coefficient is different for PASSENGERS and CARGO flights.

Modulation of the landing fee for aircraft with passengers on board.

The CO2 modulation coefficient is calculated as follows:

Coefficient = (Kg CO2 per Offered Seat (OS) – 15,1) / 200, capped at 12%.

With Kg CO2 per OS is the amount of CO2 emissions produced per landing and take-off cycle (« LTO » cycle) per offered seat.

The amount of CO2 emissions produced per landing and take-off cycle (« LTO » cycle) per offered seat is calculated, for each individual aircraft based on the registration number, as follows:

$[KgC \times Ratio (3,15)] / OS = Kg CO2 \text{ per Offered Seat (OS)}$

With:

KgC = Amount of fuel burnt (in kilograms) per landing and take-off cycle (« LTO » cycle) calculated by aircraft. This figure can be estimated by cross-using:

- The number and type of engines associated to each aircraft registration number and indicated in the data base of Cirium (privately-owned database)
- The fuel consumption associated to each type of engine, available in the ICAO database: ICAO edb-emissions-databank v26B-NewFormat (web) – <https://www.easa.europa.eu/domains/environment/icao-aircraft-engine-emissions-databank> (free)

The cross-use of both databases enables to get for a registration/aircraft, the number and type of engines, as well as the fuel consumption for this specific registration/aircraft.

- Or an estimation from the Airport Council International's « Airport Carbon and Emissions Reporting Tool » (ACERT) database – ACI: Airport Carbon and Emissions Reporting Tool (ACERT) v.5.1 -<https://aci.aero/about-aci/priorities/environment/acert/>

Ratio (3,15) = Ratio used to convert the amount of fuel (kerosene) expressed in kilograms into a quantity of CO2 emitted by the combustion of this amount of fuel (kerosene) while the aircraft engines are on operations.

If no specific data is found in the databases mentioned above for an aircraft that landed in Lyon Saint Exupéry airport, Lyon Airports will automatically use the greatest value associated to the type of aircraft/engine available in the above-mentioned sources.

In such a case, within 15 days after the landing date, the carrier will be able to correct the information by providing to Lyon Airports' invoicing department with either the supporting documents produced by the aircraft manufacturer or the aircraft registration documents mentioning the needed information for this specific aircraft. Therefore, if required, a credit note or a supplementary invoice will be issued by Lyon Airports.

Modulation of the landing fee for cargo flights.

The CO2 bonus / penalty coefficient is calculated as follows:

Coefficient = (Kg CO2 per MTOW – 36) / 200, with maximum of -12% or a maximum of 12%.

With: Kg CO2 per MTOW is the amount of CO2 emissions produced per landing and take-off cycle (« LTO » cycle) divided by the maximum takeoff weight as indicated on the airworthiness certificate and rounded up to the superior ton.

The amount of CO2 emissions produced per landing and take-off cycle (« LTO » cycle) per offered seat is calculated, for each individual aircraft based on the registration number, as follows:

DISCOUNT ON PASSENGER FEES

The passenger fee discount is calculated by the carrier based on the number of outbound passengers handled over the calendar year or as a proportion for the first and the last year of its implementation.

As stated by R224-2-2 of the French Civil Aviation Code, this discount supports the general interest objective that aims to maintaining a stable traffic base by encouraging companies' loyalty and by thus safeguarding, over the years, a high level of equipment usage.

For 2022, terms and conditions associated to this discount measure are as follows:

Eligibility

It is imperative to fulfil the following conditions at the same time:

- The number of outbound passengers from Lyon in 2021 is above 89 000;
- The total number of passengers (arrival + departure) in 2021 (12 months) is superior to 95 % of the total number of passengers in 2020 (12 months);
- The total number of passengers (arrival + departure) in 2021 is superior to 90 % of the maximum number of passengers reached during the last three years 2018, 2019 and 2020;

Exceptionally, for the year 2022, and by derogation of the last three conditions, this measure will be also applied to airlines with more than 89 000 passengers' departures in 2022, that already benefitted from this measure in 2019 and who will generate in 2022 a passenger traffic of at least 80% of their 2019 traffic passenger.

Calculation:

- The percentage to be considered corresponds to the number of outbound passengers reached during the calendar year, regardless of the segment of origin and applies from the first outbound passenger
- Thresholds for the number of outbound passengers:

Number of outbound passengers	89 000	100 000	125 000	150 000	200 000	225 000	250 000	275 000	300 000	325 000	350 000

Payment:

The discount shall be payed as a credit note after the results of the calendar year have been validated by the Supervisory Board.

if a second carrier launches the same route during the first two years of opening the route, as per the same eligibility criteria, the discounts will be applicable as follows:

The discount will be granted to the first airline, or group of airlines, to start the operations (operations starting date) on the new route.

If the launch of the route (operations starting date) is scheduled on the same date for both airlines, the discount will be granted to the first airline to announce the launch of the route.

The airline or group of airlines (*) must fulfil the following conditions:

(*) For the requirements of this decision, the group of airline companies meeting the following conditions is qualified as a group of airlines Belonging to the same holding company or whose one is the majority owner of the other.

of which the total inventory of the routes operated by the airlines concerned are on sale via a single website;

Eligibility date conditions :

No measure can be applicated retroactively.

Regulatory compliance conditions :

The airline or group of airlines respect the current commercial aviation regulations.

Conditions related to the growth of passengers number generated by the airline :

The measure benefits any airline or groupe of airlines (*):

- Generating a growth in outbound passenger volume in year Y compared to years Y-1, Y-2 and Y-3, with a minimum of 4 % measured between Y and Y-1,
- and carrying a minimum annual volume of 20,000 departing passengers (calendar year Y).

This measure is cumulative with the incentive pricing detailed in the 2022 Charges Guide, except for the new route incentive. Thus, airlines operating one or more routes eligible for the new route incentive will receive the traffic growth incentive after deduction of all discounts obtained under the new route incentive.

As long as the eligibility requirements are met, the measure also applies to new entrants.

In case of a buyout, a merger or intra-group movement, volumes and growth will include the traffic of both carriers for years Y, Y-1, Y-2, Y-3 . In other words, in the event of an intra-group transfer, the airline operating the route in year Y will take over the records.

Every calendar year, a progressive discount on the passenger fee is granted to airlines that have generated growth in outbound passenger volume in year Y compared to years Y-1, Y-2 and Y-3, with a minimum of 4 % measured between Y and Y-1, based on the level of growth reached.

Level of Growth, Y versus Y-1	Discount % on unit passenger fee per passenger segment and geographical destination

> 10 % to 15 %	6 %
> 15 % to 20 %	10 %
> 20 % to 25 %	15 %

The percentage of the discount is established in the calendar year at the end of year Y. The liquidation of the measure (calculation of the discount and payment) takes place once the results of the calendar year N are validated and published in year Y+1. This percentage discount is applied to the passenger fee as charged by Lyon Airports to the airline or group of airlines (*) during year Y.

Lyon Airports is responsible for calculating the discount to be granted to the airline or group of airlines, using its own sources of traffic statistics.

Terms of payment

Any airline, or group of airlines, meeting the conditions of eligibility for the traffic growth incentive from Lyon-Saint Exupery is invited to contact the Airline Development Department before launching its program in order to define the implementation and monitoring procedures.

No measure can be applied retroactively.

In case of a transfer of capacity among airlines chartered on behalf of an express carrier or an integrator, the airline that will operate the route or portfolio of routes in question in year N will receive the credit history.

Formula

Every calendar year, a progressive discount on the landing fee is granted to airlines that have generated growth in metric tons landing in year Y compared to years Y-1, Y-2 and Y-3 with a minimum of 4 % measured between Y and Y-1, based on the level of growth reached, without being able to exceed 20 % of the unit fee beyond growth of over 50 %.

From 4 % to 10 %	4 %
> 10% to 20 %	8 %
> 20% to 50 %	15 %

The percentage of the discount is established in the calendar year at the end of year Y. The liquidation of the measure (calculation of the discount and payment) takes place once the results of the calendar year N are validated and published in year Y+1.

This percentage discount is applied to the landing fee as charged by Lyon Airports to the airline or group of airlines during year Y.

Lyon Airports is responsible for calculating the discount to be granted to the airline or group of airlines, using its own sources of traffic statistics.

Terms of payment

Any airline, or group of airlines, meeting the conditions of eligibility for the traffic growth incentive from Lyon-Saint Exupery is invited to contact the Airline Development Department before launching its program in order to define the implementation and monitoring procedures.

In the case of a chartered airline, Lyon Airports reserves the right to transfer all or part of the bonus to the integrator or carrier having chartered this airline with the agreement of the latter.

SUSPENSION :

Any Airline with irregularities or late payments with respect to its airport fees will be excluded from this scheme until the complete payment of the bills issued by Lyon Airports. As a result, the discount is not applicable to the fees due during the period for which the delay or payment default is noticed.
